

Culinary Delights

MPAAA welcomes you to beautiful Traverse City, MI! Food is a passion for some and an afterthought for others. For Traverse City—it's a passion. With an agricultural history and a commitment to creating menus that showcase the region's ingredients, the area has become a culinary destination. We have updated this guide with a few new restaurants and removed a couple that unfortunately have since closed or do not remain open during our convention timeframe. Although not an inclusive list, this guide will give you a snapshot of some of the best eateries that Traverse City has to offer. Bon Appetit!
