

Unlock the Magic: Discovering Insights with MiDataHub

Now that your data has been transferred to the datahub, how do you see it and verify it

Introduction

Melissa Tront

Senior Integration Analyst

MiDataHub

Hey, I'm Melissa, your Senior Integration Analyst at MiDataHub.

Approaching almost a year with the team, I bring over 16 years of education and database mastery, previously orchestrating data wizardry at St. Joseph County ISD. Today, we're peeling back the layers to explore the hidden wonders of MiDataHub. Ready for the journey?

Why Invest Your Time? What Distinguishes This Presentation?

- Take a spin through District Reports in the Cockpit
- Master the art of checking for data quality issues
- Learn to use dashboards to verify data

“You can have all of the fancy tools, but if [your] data quality is not good,
you’re nowhere.”

—Veda Bawo, Data Governance Advisory at JLL
Technologies

Where on earth should I begin?

You've got the data, now let's make sure it's running like a well-oiled machine. The cockpit is where all the action happens, but before we get there, let's double-check that you've got your login credentials good to go!
